Montmorency RICC Welcomes Senator Tony Stamas Public is invited to attend luncheon on his behalf

LANSING- The Montmorency Regional Interagency Coordinating Committee (RICC) would like to invite the public to a luncheon they are sponsoring on behalf of newly elected Senator, Tony Stamas. The Montmorency RICC is a local group made up of people with disabilities, family members and advocates. They meet monthly to help resolve local problems and assist people in acquiring supports and services, specifically in the areas of community living, education, employment and leadership development. The group helps to increase opportunities for people with developmental disabilities to become more independent, productive, and to participate more fully in the community.
